Abbie Shull “Annie Oakley” is thrilled to be playing a role she’s dreamed about for nearly ten years. Last seen in SJT’s production of You’re a Good Man, Charlie Brown, Abbie is delighted to be on the stage at St. John again. She has been involved with theatre for twelve years. Growing up in MISSOURI she starred in such productions as Into the Woods (the Bakers Wife) and The Drowsy Chaperone (Janet Van de Graffe). Abbie would like to thank her ever supportive family, especially her wonderful parents. She would also like to thank Greer for giving her this incredible part to play, and Jordyn and Lauren for their support and dedication to the show. Lastly, she’d like to thank this magnificent cast and crew. It is a joy to be on stage with you all every night. Enjoy the show, and thank you for continuing to support local theatre!

Lance S. Ural “Frank Butler” is once again very happy to be on stage at St. John Theatre. At St. John, Lance has recently been seen as The Complete Works of William Shakespeare, Abridged as himself; The Producers as Leo Bloom; The Music Man as Harold Hill; and a few others. Also Lance recently directed his first show at St. John Theatre last fall, You’re A Good Man, Charlie Brown. Outside of SJT, Lance has performed in many theatres throughout the River Parishes. Recently Lance has been seen in Rivertown Reparatory Theatre’s Plaid Tidings (Smudge), Chicago (Fred Casely), A Chorus Line (Marc Anthony), River Region Drama Guild’s Footloose (Ren McCormick), The King and I (Lun Tha), and many productions at many other local theaters. Lance would like to dedicate this show to JD, a dedicated and great cast member, SJT veteran, and man. Also, Lance would like to dedicate this show to Aunt Julie. I know you aren’t going to be in the audience for this one, but I know you’re watching and smiling. Love you, Aunt Julie. Enjoy the show!

Jeremy Guidry “Buffalo Bill” is excited to be on the stage once again with such a wonderfully talented cast. Last seen in You’re a Good Man, Charlie Brown as Schroeder, he is thrilled to bring Buffalo Bill and all of his grandeur to the stage for you with this production of Annie Get Your Gun. Laplace native, Jeremy has been a part of the St. John Theatre community for well over 10 years now starting from 2001 with Cinderella. He has since been seen in an abundance of shows ranging from the classic Into the Woods all the way to the zany Seussical. Jeremy is proud to be a part of such a great group of talented people in the River Parishes who have decided to share their talents with you. He hopes you enjoy the show and remember – “There’s No Business Like Show Business!!”

Derrick Fauchoux “Charlie Davenport” After a 4 year hiatus Derrick is blessed to be back at St. John Theatre. He currently is attending Southeastern Louisiana University where he is pursuing a career in Sports Management. This past year he was president of the Southeastern Catholic Student Association on campus. He also worked as a Student Manager on the 2014 Southland Conference Tournament Champion baseball team. His most memorable roles at SJT have been Dean Hyde in All Shook Up (09) and Tommy Djilas in The Music Man (10). Derrick would like to thank his family, friends, and God for he believes it is God who brought him back to his love for acting. J.D. pray for us.

Audrey Martin “Dolly Tate” could not be happier to return to the St. John Theatre stage. This is her third summer show here in Reserve, with past productions including The Producers and Suessical the Musical. Additionally, she is a 2014 graduate of St. Charles Catholic High School, where she truly discovered her love for performing under the direction of Mrs. Greer Millet, and Audrey is thrilled to be working with her and so many fellow SCC Stagehands once again. Past credits there include Professor Willard in Our Town, Agent 99 in Get Smart, Narrator in Joseph and the Technicolor Dream Coat, and personal favorite Miss Adelaide in Guy and Dolls. Audrey truly looks forward to sharing her passion for performing with the River Parishes community, and she would like to extend a heartfelt thanks to all the cast, crew, volunteers, and countless others who worked tirelessly to make this show a success. There truly is “no business like show business,” so sit back, relax, and enjoy the show!

Jared Tregre “Tommy Keeler” is a 2013 graduate of St. Charles Catholic. During his four years at SCC, Jared was a member of the Stagehands Drama Club under the leadership of Mrs. Greer Millet. In his senior year, Jared was elected President of the Stagehands. Jared participated in all of the Stagehand’s productions including Unwrapped, Our Town, Get Smart, and in his senior year, his most infamous role was The Pharoah in Joseph and the Technicolor Dream Coat. In addition, Jared has spent the past three summers participating in the St. John Theatre summer musicals directed by Daryl Clement. He enjoyed roles in Suessical the Musical as Wickersham #1, his interesting roles in The Producers, Captain of the Ship in last summer’s production of Anything Goes, and one of three cast members in The Complete Works of William Shakespeare Abridged and Revised. In this Summer of 2015, Jared continues his volunteer work at St. John Theatre with his role in the current production of Annie Get Your Gun as Tommy. Jared is a first semester junior at LSU with a major in Criminology.

Lauren Snowdy “Winnie Tate” Having grown up on the St. John Theatre stage, Lauren is dazzled to share her 11th SJT production experience with the cast of Annie Get Your Gun. She has also performed with both River Region Drama Guild and St. James Community Theatre but was most recently seen playing Sally Brown in SJT’s You’re a Good Man, Charlie Brown last fall. Lauren is a former SCC Stagehand and performer, appearing in several productions, her favorite as Emily in Our Town. She has also served as the choreographer for several of St. John Theatre’s Children’s Workshops, SJT’s The Producers, SCC’s Guy and Dolls, and Joseph. Lauren is a senior at Southeastern Louisiana University where she is studying Psychology and pursuing a minor in French. She would like to thank her family members, friends, and ΦM sisters for their outrageous amounts of love and support, Greer and Jordyn for their direction, patience, and teamwork, and most especially the Snowdy and Troups families for their incredible involvement. She sends LOVE to the cast and crew and hopes you enjoy the show!

Jourdan Buras “Chief Sitting Bull” returns to the stage after 5 years of being away. This is Jourdan’s second summer show with St. John Theatre with the first being All Shook Up, but this will be his fifth time on the stage. Jourdan graduated from St. Charles Catholic in LaPlace in 2011. St. Charles is where he began performing on stage under the direction of Mrs. Greer Millet. Jourdan’s last performance on the stage was in Our Town where he played Doctor Gibbs. Jourdan is overjoyed to be returning to the stage once again, and ecstatic to bring to life the role of Chief Sitting Bull. It is a passion and a thrill to perform on stage with all of the wonderful people who share the stage with him. Jourdan hopes everyone enjoys the show and is glad to be back on the stage.

Greer Millet (Director) was last seen on SJT’s stage last summer as Reno Sweeney in Anything Goes. This year, she is ecstatic to be able to bring Annie Get Your Gun to the River Parishes. When she is not working with SJT, she teaches English, Fine Arts, and Theatre at St. Charles Catholic High School in LaPlace. For over 35 years, Greer, her husband, Kevin, and their daughters, Grace and Maddie have made SJT their summer home, and wouldn’t have it any other way!! Enjoy the show!!!

Jordyn Keller (Musical Director), a St. James Parish native, could be seen in St. John Theater’s summer musicals between 2004-2009. She recently graduated summa cum laude with her Bachelor’s degree in Music from The Boston Conservatory in Boston, Massachusetts. While in Boston, she studied with Kathryn Wright, and she appeared in the chorus of La Bohème and as a hen in Janáček’s The Cunning Little Vixen. She also holds a Certificate of Artistry from the New Orleans Center for Creative Arts. Currently, Ms. Keller continues to perform professionally throughout the community as well as the greater New Orleans area as an accompanist, cantor, and section leader for St. Francis Xavier Church in Metairie. Ms. Keller currently studies with Sarah Jane McMahon. She plans to continue on to her graduate studies in musicology in the fall of 2015 on full scholarship at the University of Texas at Austin.

In Memoriam

Terry Strayer

Terry was the best darn Car Parking Engineer ever to work the lot at St. John Theatre. Ever ready to help and lend a hand, Terry was a long-time friend of the theater and its patrons. The “G-man” will be missed.

Harold Madere

Harold was our primary set constructor in the early days. He served for a short time on the Board of Directors. Since Harold was a general carpenter by trade, we often had the sturdiest sets in the state! Harold volunteered many hours for his friend, Managing Director Jack Snowdy. We remember his fun-loving spirit and his infectious laugh. An all-around good guy. He will be missed.

The Cast, Crew, Staff, and Orchestra of Annie Get Your Gun dedicate the show to John “J.D.”
Labat, a cast member and longtime St. John Theatre player who passed away suddenly on June 29th. We will miss the persistent encouragement JD offered to everyone he met.

Rest in peace, dear friend.

Reserve Telecommunications was founded in 1935 by local entrepreneur Daniel Madere to provide telephone service to a portion of St. John the Baptist Parish that the big companies had passed over. Through the years, RTC has grown and prospered by expanding our service area and products.

Eighty years later we are a full service hometown telecommunications provider serving the St. John, St. James and Northern Lafourche Parishes with Telephone, Video, and High-Speed Internet.

RTC is Louisiana owned, locally managed and an active member of the River Parish & Bayou communities. We are focused on serving the needs of our local community. Our goal is to provide you with better products, better service and a better value.

Congratulations
