Dear Audience Members,

When we, the creators of HAIRSPRAY, first started licensing the show to high-schools and community theatres, we were asked by some about using make-up in order for non-African Americans to portray the black characters in the show.

Although we comprehend that not every community around the globe has the perfectly balanced make-up (pardon the pun) of ethnicity to cast HAIRSPRAY as written, we had to, of course, forbid any use of the coloring of anyone's face (even if done respectfully and subtly) for it is still, at the end of the day, a form of blackface, which is a chapter in the story of race in America that our show is obviously against.

Yet, we also realized, to deny an actor the chance to play a role due to the color of his or her skin would be its own form of racism, albeit a "politically correct" one.

And so, if the production of HAIRSPRAY you are about to see tonight features folks whose skin color doesn't match the characters (not unlike how Edna has been traditionally played by a man), we ask that you use the timeless theatrical concept of "suspension of disbelief" and allow yourself to witness the story and not the racial background (or gender) of the actors. Our show is, after all, about not judging books by their covers! If the direction and the actors are good (and they had better be!) you will still get the message loud and clear. And hopefully have a great time receiving it!

Thank You,

Marc, Scott, Mark, Tom & John

Abbie Shull (Tracy Turnblad) is thrilled to be back at St. John Theatre as Tracy Turnblad. Shull first performed on the SJT stage as Lucy Van Pelt in “You’re A Good Man Charlie Brown”. Now, nearly three years later, Shull has been in four productions at SJT, including her favorite role as Annie Oakley in “Annie Get Your Gun”. Some of her favorite roles include: Princess Fiona “Shrek: The Musical”, The Bakers Wife “Into The Woods”, and Janet Vandergraff “The Drowsy Chaperone”. Recently, Shull choreographed “High School Musical” for the St. Charles Catholic High School Stagehands. Ms. Shull attends Louisiana

State University where she is pursuing a Bachelor’s degree in mass communication with a focus in political communication and a minor in theatre. Shull would like to thank her incredible support system led by her parents, Karen and Jonathon, and her brothers, Nick and Ben, as well as her boyfriend Eric. Ms. Shull would also like to thank director “Uncle” Wayne Diagrepoint for always being in sync. Shull would like to thank her partner-in-crime, stage manager Abigail Smith, who provided endless amounts of support, friendship, and green tea throughout this process. To the entire cast and crew of Hairspray: Thank you for your incredible hard work and determination; you are all immensely talented and I am honored to share the stage with you. Lastly, Shull would like to give a special thank you to Ms. Ella Marie Workmon, without you I would not be here; we miss you and think of you everyday.

Jeremy Guidry (Edna Turnblad) is excited to be on the stage once again with such a wonderfully talented cast. Last seen as Shrek in “Shrek, the Musical”, he is thrilled to bring Edna Turnblad and her powerfully fabulous self to the stage for you with this production of Hairspray. A Laplace native, Jeremy has been a part of the St. John Theatre community for well over 15 years, starting in 2001 with “Cinderella.” He has since been seen in many shows ranging from the classic “Into the Woods” all the way to the zany “Seussical.” Jeremy is proud to be a part of such a great group of talented people in the River Parishes who have decided to share their talents with you. It has been a challenge to embrace all that Edna is, but he hopes you enjoy his take on such an iconic role. It has been a whirlwind of fun for him to perform such a challenging role - who knew being a woman was so HARD! He hopes you enjoy the show and remember – You can’t stop the beat!!

Dennis A Tausin Jr (Wilbur Turnblad) Dennis is excited to be performing in his first production in St John Parish. Although he is playing Wilbur in this production, he has played Corny Collins in a previous production of “Hairspray” with River Region Drama Guild. He would like to thank the cast and crew here in St John Parish for the amazing experience and the new friends. He would also like to thank his wife, Natalie and his daughter, Logan for all the love and support during this process! Enjoy the show!

Lance S. Ural (Link Larkin) is once again very happy to be on stage at St. John Theatre. At St. John, Lance has recently been seen in “The Wizard of Oz” as the Tinman, “Annie Get Your Gun” as Frank Butler, “The Complete Works of William Shakespeare, Abridged” as himself; “The Producers” as Leo Bloom; “The Music Man” as Harold Hill; and a few others. Outside of SJT has performed in many theatres throughout the River Parishes. Lance has been here in Rivertown Repertory Theatre’s “Plaid Tidings” as Smudge, “Chicago” as Fred Casely, “A Chorus Line” as Marc Anthony, River Region Drama Guild’s” Footloose” as Ren McCormick, “The King and I” as Lun Tha. To my fellow cast mates, great job! Sharing the stage with all of you, has been wonderful. Love you guys! I would like to thank my loving family, friends and girlfriend, Mía, for their never ending love and support. Enjoy the show!

Warren A. Hovis (Corny Collins) is honored to play Corny Collins in his 2nd production with St. John Theatre and to be on stage with three of his daughters: Corinn, LeeAnn, and Rachael!!! Warren's stage credits include: "Disney's Tarzan, The Musical" (Father of Tarzan, Mangani, and ensemble), "The Wizard of OZ" (The Cowardly Lion), "High School Musical" (Coach Bolton), "Mary Poppins", "The Nutcracker 2014-2016", "Humbug!", "My Fair Lady", "Once Upon A Mattress", "The Sleeping Beauty" (ballet), RRDG's "Hairspray" (Wilbur Turnblad), and "The Music Man". Warren has performed in the Pit Orchestra (trombone) in two separate productions of "The Music Man" and in "Brigadoon." Warren is married and has 5 daughters, two sets of twins. Warren loves to sing a cappella music, and to spend time with his friends and family. He would like to thank his loving wife, Karrie, and his wonderful wonderful daughters, Lindsey, Patricia, Corinn, LeeAnn, and Rachael. TGBTG!!

Corinn Hovis (Penny Pingelton) is thrilled to be making her St. John Theatre debut as Penny in Hairspray! She just finished her sophomore year at Destrehan High School and will be a junior in the fall. She studied Musical Theatre at the New Orleans Center for Creative Arts (NOCCA) for two years. She currently dances with River Region Ballet as a Senior Company member. Most recently, she performed as Clara in River Region Ballet's production of "The Nutcracker" and Samuel Chase in "1776" at NOCCA. Some of her other stage credits include, Little Mermaid Jr. (Sebastian), Alice's Adventures in Wonderland (Mad Hatter), Seussical Jr. (Bird Girl), Once Upon a Mattress (Ensemble), and many others. Corinn would like to thank her numerous dance teachers, specifically Heidi Adams and Katelyn Fitts, for all of the knowledge they have shared with her. She would also like to thank her vocal teacher, Donna Clavijo, for the countless vocal warm-ups and lessons. Finally, Corinn would especially like to thank her parents, Warren and Karrie Hovis, and her four sisters (Lindsey, Patricia, LeeAnn, and Rachael). She wouldn't be where she is today if it wasn't for their continuous love and support.

Jared Michael Tregre (Seaweed J. Stubbs) is a 2013 graduate of St. Charles Catholic. During his four years at SCC, Jared was a member of the Stagehands Drama Club under the leadership of Mrs. Greer Millet. In his senior year, Jared was elected President of the Stagehands. During that time, Jared participated in all of the Stagehand's productions including "Unwrapped", "Our Town", "Get Smart", and in his senior year, his most infamous role was The Pharaoh in "Joseph and The Technicolor Dream Coat". In addition, Jared spent the summers participating in the St. John Theatre summer musicals. He enjoyed roles in "Suessical the Musical" as Wickersham #1, "The Producers", and the Captain of the Ship in "Anything Goes". In this Spring of 2015, Jared continued his work at St. John Theatre with his leading role in "The Complete Works of William Shakespeare". Jared recently graduated from LSU with a major in Criminology and a minor in Theatre. Jared hopes you enjoy the show, and if you do make sure you run and tell that to all of your friends.

Raynia Johnson (Motormouth Maybelle) The last time she was on stage was in 2001, when she starred in her own production, "7TEEN," which was produced in SJT. She is a proud graduate of South Central Louisiana Technical College and also a proud mother of three charismatic, amazing girls. Raynia would like to thank her mother for her insurmountable amount of support as she sat at every rehearsal cheering her on. She would also like to thank her incredible boyfriend who has surely proven to be her number one fan. Raynia would also like to thank her daughters for their patience and encouragement. Lastly, she would like to thank "Uncle Wayne" and the phenomenal cast for welcoming her and allowing her to be a part of this spectacle we call "Hairspray!"

Amere Stewart (Little Inez) is a native of St. John the Baptist Parish. She first began singing and dancing at the age of in the church where she touched the hearts and souls of the congregation. Amere has trained with some of the best teachers in the region. Stewart's School of Performing Arts, Debby Gaudet Young Screen Actors, and Project Gumbeaux. She has sung and danced for the last 3 years in St. John the Baptist Parish Andouille Festival and marched in Krewe of DuMonde parade. Amere is the captain of the junior dance team, TrendSetters, and is the starting pitcher for the East St. John Elementary Bobcats. With all that going on, Amere still finished this school year with a 4.0 grade point average. Amere's gifts have caught the eye of Grammy Award Winning recording artist, Beyonce. In December of 2015, she was chosen to participate in her video for the song, "Freedom" off of her Project Lemonade album. In January 2016, she participated in her first movie, "Bad Moms" and was then featured in the television series, "Queen Sugar," which is produced by Oprah Winfrey and Ava DuVernay. She also did background work for "The Domestics," and "Girls Trip." Her most recent achievement was successfully obtaining her first speaking role in the Baton Rouge Medical Center commercial, which was produced by Spang T.V. Amere also just signed with one of the biggest agencies in the south called, The People Store. With the prayers of her family and the grace of God, Amere is destined to have a bright future.

Madison Gerhart (Velma Von Tussel), better known as Maddie, is absolutely thrilled to be a part of this year's show. She has been performing on stage for as long as she can remember. Recently, she was Kelsey in "AOG" for East St. John High School as well as Gaston in her ballet production with Dancecetra. She has been involved win many production at St. John Theatre most recently the "Wizard of Oz". This is absolutely one of the best casts I have ever been a part of. I am honored to be Velma and thrilled to be a part of the SJT family. Enjoy the show!

Logan Tazuin (Amber Von Tussel) will be a freshman at University of Louisiana-Lafayette in the fall and she is ecstatic to be a part of her first St. John production. She just graduated from Hahnville High School where she participated heavily in the theatre productions including "In the Heights" (Nina Rosario), "The Odd Couple: Female Edition" (Florence Ungar) and many others. She has also performed with River Region, JPAS, Rivertown, and Spotlight Productions. She'd like to thank the talented cast and crew for their amazing work and Uncle Wayne for giving her the opportunity to finally play Amber in "Hairspray!"

Lance T. Duhe (Mr. Pinky, Brad) is so pleased to be back on the St. John Theatre stage again this year. Having previously been seen as the Grinch in "Seussical the Musical," and as a supporting cast member in "Anything Goes," "The Producers," and "Annie Get Your Gun." Lance has also been seen in "Shrek the Musical" with St. James Community Theatre and "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat" and "Guys and Dolls" with the St. Charles Catholic Stage Hands. Lance has also been a part of the South East Regional Honor Choir and has also been a part of Northwestern State University's Choral Ensemble. Lance will be attending LSU to pursue a Degree in Music Education. Lance would like to thank his mom and dad, his grandma, and his sister for always supporting and encouraging him to explore the arts and follow his dreams.

Lesli Boucvalt (Prudy Pingelton) a lifelong resident of LaPlace, is thrilled to make her onstage debut with St. John Theatre. Though she has not been on stage since her high school days at SCC in "Bye Bye Birdie" and "Once Upon a Mattress," Lesli has spent many a summer at SJT working behind the scenes with props and set painting. Theatre aside, Lesli spends her normal hours teaching in St. James Parish and raising 2 boys, Luke and Will, with her husband Chris. She is ecstatic to share the stage this summer with her 14 year-old, theatre veteran, Luke. Lesli would like to thank Wayne Daigrepoint, Abbie, and Lil A for their encouragement and support this summer. Enjoy the show!

Steven Fontenot (Gym Teacher, Prison Maytron) is a Detective in the Juvenile Investigation Division of the St. Charles Parish Sheriff’s Office and a member of the River Region Drama Guild Board. He is married to Maria Fontenot and has 3 Children Ethan, Grayson and Elijah. He has been in such Musical Productions as “Joan of Arc”, “Sound of Music”, “Godspell”, “Rent”, “Chicago”, “Mary Poppins”, “Hairspray”, “Annie”, “High School Musical on Stage”, “You’re a Good Man Charlie Brown” and “South Pacific”. He has also been in the River Region Ballet Company’s Production of “The Nutcracker”. Steven thanks his wife Maria for allowing him the time to pursue his passion of Musical Theatre.

“Uncle Wayne” (Director) as he is more commonly called, is honored to be asked back to SJT, after having just done the Wizard in (last summer’s) “Oz!” He, in fact, directed “Oz” in this same space 2 decades ago. You may recognize him as having performed all over N.O. in the past 4 decades : The Beverly, Le Petit, Children’s Corner, Castle Theatre, NORD, and JPAS, just to name a few. He boasts he actually “makes a living” making people smile (& laff), via his own entertainment company (for the past 27 years): Porta-Puppet Players. He truly tips his Cajun hat to his Co-Director/ Star (Abbie Shull), and his Asst,-Director, the very swampy Abigail Smith!

Andrew David Alegría (Choral Director) Andrew Alegría is an accomplished choral director, vocal soloist, and music teacher. He graduated from Baylor University in 2003 with a Bachelor of Music. In 2012 he graduated with a Master of Music from The University of New Mexico. Currently he is working on his Doctor of Musical Arts at Louisiana State University under Dr. John Dickson. His monograph is on Ariel Ramirez’s “Misa Por La Paz y La Justicia”. He has taught voice and piano throughout Texas, South Carolina, and New Mexico. Mr. Alegría sang for many years with the Houston Grand Opera, Greenville Opera, and Opera Southwest, and held music ministry positions at churches in Houston, Texas, and in Albuquerque, New Mexico. In the fall of 2012, he became an Adjunct Lecturer of Music at The University of New Mexico, where he conducted the University Chorus and the opera chorus. He led the New Mexico Philharmonic Children’s chorus as part of a musical education outreach based on the “El Sistema” movement in Venezuela. He served as Artistic Director of Coro de Cámara in 2013, a professional chorus based in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Currently he is the director of music ministry at First United Methodist Church in Gonzales, LA. His musical theatre conducting includes: “Fiddler on the Roof”, ”Shrek the Musical”, “Tarzan the Musical”, “Jekyll and Hyde”, “The Adams Family”, “Cinderella”, and “Rock of Ages”.

Our Star,

From the day you were born, you were our star! You are smart, beautiful, and intelligent, just to name a few things that you are.

You started dancing at the age of two and that's when your star qualities shined even brighter. Watching you do the things you do with such ease, lets us know that our star will shine brighter.

On this day we celebrate and congratulate you on all of your star qualities, you are our shining star. You shine bright because that's what stars do!

Love you,
